PROCLAMATION

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY COME, GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, a sister of St. Francis in Oldenburg, Indiana, Sister Norma Rocklage holds an M.A. and Ph.D from St. Louis University and has also done postgraduate work in theology at the Weston School of Theology in Cambridge, Massachusetts. She currently is the Executive Director for Education Formation Outreach at Marian University; and

WHEREAS, for the past 25 years, Sister Norma has been involved in several dioceses centered on adult education and has long been a champion of diversity and inclusion in central Indiana, particularly by supporting equal educational opportunities. Tirelessly dedicated to the community, she has served on the governing board of the Indiana Network for Higher Education Ministries and with the Indiana Newman Foundation. She currently serves on the Holy Family Service Board, the Interfaith Hunger Initiative Board, the International Interfaith Board and the Church Federation of Greater Indianapolis; and

WHEREAS, Sister Norma was a founding board member of the Center for Interfaith Cooperation, has hosted interfaith prayer services at Marian University, and was integral in organizing Marian's first interfaith chapel service. Throughout her professional life, she has embodied a commitment to dignity, peace, justice, reconciliation and responsible stewardship; and

WHEREAS, today, we congratulate Sister Norma for being named the 2017 Interfaith Ambassador of the Year and honor her for a life dedicated to uplifting vulnerable members of our community and embracing all those who need welcoming;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOSEPH H. HOGSETT, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM FEBRUARY 12, 2017 AS:

SISTER NORMA DAY

Dear Friends,

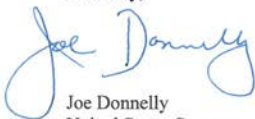

As Indiana's United States Senator, it is my honor and privilege to welcome you to the Third Annual Interfaith Banquet hosted by Center for Interfaith Cooperation. Unfortunately, a scheduling conflict prevents me from being with you in person this evening.

For a quarter century, Sister Norma Rocklodge has been a leader in the central Indiana interfaith community, serving as a champion for the most vulnerable members of our community and working to improve the quality of life for those most in need. Hoosiers across central Indiana are grateful for her many years of service, and there is no one more deserving of the title of 2017 Interfaith Ambassador of the Year.

Matthew 25:35-36 says, "For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me."

Sister Norma is the epitome of serving God by serving others, and our community has been strengthened by her many years of leadership. I congratulate Sister Norma on this well-deserved recognition, and I wish her well with her future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Dear Sister Norma:

I am pleased to join with so many others in congratulating you on being recognized as the Interfaith Ambassador of the Year by the Center for Interfaith Cooperation.

The honor is especially fitting, given your lifelong dedication to public service and connecting people of different faiths. You have served, with distinction, not only Marian University, but also the greater Indianapolis and Indiana communities. Indeed, your impact can be felt throughout the world through the activities of the students and parishioners you have guided over many years. I would like to thank you, personally, for the work you have done to give students and community members the opportunity to learn about and from people of differing cultures and faiths, as I believe cross-cultural understanding is the key to a more just and peaceful world.

Congratulations, once again, for the signal recognition of being named Interfaith Ambassador of the Year. I wish you many years of good health and vitality.

Sincerely,

Dear Sr. Norma:

I extend a heartfelt congratulations on the well-earned Interfaith Ambassador of the Year Award you're receiving from the Center for Interfaith Cooperation. As your friends, family and associates gather to celebrate your achievement, I want to add my personal thanks for all you've done throughout your wonderful career.

Through your work at Marian University and your extensive philanthropic and charitable involvement, you've dedicated your life to the betterment of the community. You've made a lasting impact on Indiana. For that, our state remains forever grateful.

I look forward to your continued involvement as you serve others and continue to be a great ambassador of the Hoosier State.

Sincerely,

Dear Sister Norma,

I am honored to offer my congratulations to you in receiving the Interfaith Ambassador of the Year Award from the Center for Interfaith Cooperation.

It is difficult to know where to begin in recognizing the impact you have made during your years of service on Marian University's campus and in the broader Indianapolis community. From supporting educational opportunities for all students to organizing interfaith efforts across our city, you have shown yourself to be not only a committed faith leader, but also a staunch advocate for justice, diversity, and inclusion. Your commitment to help others has touched countless lives, and sets an example to be followed by all. You have humbly and judiciously demonstrated and embodied the Franciscan values: Dignity of the individual, Peace, and Justice, Reconciliation, and Responsible Stewardship. I am confident that your service has left a lasting legacy, and I am proud to call you my constituent.

On behalf of the 7th Congressional District of Indiana, I want to extend my heartfelt gratitude for giving your time, talents and energy to our city. I wish you many more years of health and success as a leader in our community.

Sincerely,

Dear Sr. Rocklage:

It is with great pleasure that I congratulate you on becoming the Center for Interfaith Cooperation's "Interfaith Ambassador of the Year" – an honor that is fitting and a testament to your dedication of helping build a welcoming and spiritual community.

The list of individuals and organizations that have benefitted from your religious instruction and faithful service is long. The City of Carmel and its citizens join the ranks of those grateful for your tireless efforts and contributions. Best wishes as you enjoy the many accolades you will undoubtedly receive from an indebted community.

Very truly yours,

Greeting CIC Supporters and Friends,

We welcome you to tonight's Interfaith Banquet. Thank you for joining us on this special occasion.

I am very honored to serve as the 2017 Chair of the Board of Directors for the Center for Interfaith Cooperation (CIC). Indiana is blessed to have a diverse population of individuals from around the world who call the Hoosier state their home. Many wonderful benefits come with this ethnic diversity, including new faith traditions. CIC embraces this religious diversity and believes it adds a beauty and richness to our community.

CIC has an exciting year ahead as we focus on our core areas of celebrating our diverse faith communities. We will continue to offer educational activities and opportunities for dialogue, as well as providing for areas of service as we strive to broaden our understanding about each other, uplift and unify our community, and provide support to our neighbors in need.

I regret due to my work schedule, I am out of the country for this distinct occasion to honor Sister Norma Rocklage as CIC's 2017 Interfaith Ambassador of the Year. Sister Norma exemplifies so many wonderful qualities of faith and humanity including love, peace, patience, graciousness, kindness, humbleness, goodness, as well as a generous spirit. On behalf of CIC, Sister Norma we are grateful and proud of your dedicated service to our community as we honor and celebrate your lifetime of work.

Well-deserved Sister Norma!

Warm regards,
Jane Gehlhausen

A letter from Luz Flores, former Marian student and Indiana Undocumented Youth Alliance Board Member.

What do you say about someone who gives so much and asks for nothing in return? God has granted me the privilege to know Sister Norma and allowed me to walk beside her.

One night she explained an inside joke of her “bag full of millions” that she carried to events. It was a joke that was shared with others because though she did carry a bag, there was nothing in it but bare essentials. Every time I think of this, there is an immediate smile on my face, her joy and simplicity radiate an internal light within me.

Then there’s the endless nights and days that she dedicates in support of Marian students. During my time at Marian, you could find Sister Norma front row of any sport—soccer, basketball, volleyball, baseball—whatever it was. She would attend all the orientation days, any retreat she could, and if she couldn’t physically be there for any event, she would pray for the students. Her consistent nature and unwavering support of student life truly make her the heart of the university I’m glad she could be a huge part of my experience there.

There is no one I’ve met, other than maybe my mom, that fully dedicates themselves to others as much as Sister Norma does. Her guidance and presence in my life has impacted me to be a better human. And though she has lots wisdom to share, it’s through her actions and daily interactions that have moved my heart and soul to continually reflect the love of God. Sister Norma may not know how many lives she’s influenced or how many seeds she’s planted along the way through her love, but through this award, I hope she can feel how dynamically impactful her life and dedication to the community has been.

“No single act of love for God will be lost, no generous effort is meaningless, no painful endurance is wasted. All of these encircle our world like a vital force. Sometimes it seems that our work is fruitless, but mission is not like a business transaction or investment, or even a humanitarian activity. It is not a show where we count how many people come as a result of our publicity; it is something much deeper, which escapes all measurement. It may be that the Lord uses our sacrifices to shower blessings in another part of the world which we will never visit. The Holy Spirit works as he wills, when he wills and where he wills; we entrust ourselves without pretending to see striking results. We know only that our commitment is necessary. Let us learn to rest in the tenderness of the arms of the Father amid our creative and generous commitment. Let us keep marching forward; let us give him everything, allowing him to make our efforts bear fruit in his good time.”

Dear Sr. Norma

The Butler University Center for Faith and Vocation is grateful for the work that you do to help uplift those in your community through your initiatives and commitments to social justice and equality. We are also inspired by your faith-filled fearlessness and open-heartedness and sense of humor grounded in realism-when you shared the story about being run over by a car, I don't recall any negative statement. I paraphrase. "I'm alive and get this garbage can off of me!" May we all similarly exemplify calm in the midst of turmoil, no matter how personal or global.

Mazal Tov Sister Norma Rocklage!

As the “heart and soul” of Marian University and the entire interfaith community, your generous spirit has been a model for all those working to bring understanding and compassion into every relationship and every act. The words “thank you” are too meager for the gifts you’ve given to the Greater Indianapolis interfaith community for over 60 years!

Testimonials about Sister Norma from Students and Staff at Marian University.

Sr. Norma was one of the dedicated prayer warriors who prayed my family through my daughter's cancer treatment, even as her own sister was battling cancer. Every time she sees my Anna, she mentions how hard she (and the rest of the Marian community) prayed. I'm so blessed to be the mom of a healthy 14-year-old survivor now, and was lifted up by the prayers of Sr. Norma and all our Marian family!

Cathy Siler '86 , Director of Alumni and Parent Engagement

When I think of Sr. Norma, the first thing that I think of is her heart-warming smile. She has an eternal supply of wisdom to share, but she never tries to teach anyone anything until she assures that they feel personally loved.

Luke Messmer, Student

When I think of Sister Norma, I think of a youthful spirit. She is the best part of sporting events, and she finds loving solutions to the complexities of the world. Sister Norma is a blessing in my life, not just through her soft-spoken kindness, but also through her example of prayer and her joy in simply living.

Katherine Timmermann, Student

When I think of Sr. Norma, I think of a fighting little woman, who will stand with the right and just even when all of society is against her. She believes and has faith that God is on her side, so who can stand against her?

Catherine Bell. Student

When I think of Sr. Norma I think of a gentle generous warrior. She is the main reason I came to Marian because she fought for me to come to this school and she was so generous with my family. God works through her with so much peace, she is a blessing.

Jonathan Tinajero, Student

When I think of Sister Norma, I think of authentic missionary discipleship. You can either find her sitting at the feet of the Teacher in peaceful prayer, or fighting tirelessly for those in need.

Kristin Hauer, Student

When I think of Sr. Norma, I think of Intelligence. She is a brilliant woman who could be off with the best of scholars, yet chooses to spend her time educating students about our Lord and Savior. She is intelligent and compassionate.
